For the Confederate. Public Meeting in Hertford County. At a meeting of the citizens of Hertford county, in the Court House, on Monday, the 28th March, Wm. D. Pruden was called to the chair, and Geo. W. Beverley was appointed secretary. On motion, a committee of five were appointed to draft resolutions for the meeting: the chairman appointed on the committee, Jessé J. Yeates, Daviel Valentine, Hon. W. N. H. Smith, Jr., T. J. Wheeler and Col. J. M. Wynn, who retired and after a short absence made the following report:

Whereas the approaching election for Goverwhereas the approaching election for Governor, renders proper an expression of the preference of the people of Hertford county; and whereas our present Governor, Zebulou B. Vance, by the vigor, energy and patriotism with which he has discharged his official duties during the most critical period of our history, his generous and successful efforts to provide for the wants of our soldiers in the field and their families at home, his zealous and consistent support of the great struggle in which we are now involved for the maintenance of the public liberty, has proved himself eminently fit for the position and worthy of the cordial confidence of the people, therefore

Resolved, That we declare our preference for him, and disregarding former divisions of sentiment, will give him our votes in the next election; and believing that unanimity should as far as practicable be manifested in making by his biographer to have hastened his end the selection as due to the just influence of North Carolina and her proud history in the past, we do earnestly invite his general support by her people.

The meeting was addressed by Col. J. W. Hinton in the absence of the committee, in a speech of great eloquence and power, reviewing thehistory of the present war and paying to Gov. Vance an enlogy that made our people proud to think we had so noble and patriotic a hero as Governor of the Old North State. After the reading of the resolutions, speeches were made by Hon. W. N. H. Smith and Jesse J. Yeates and of motion the resolutions were unanimo ly adopted. It being the week of the Superior Court, a large number of the sion. people of the country were present, and the enthusiastic and undivided sentiment of the meeting was for our cause and Governor Vance.

On motion, a committee of five were appointed to extend to Gov. Vance an invitation to visit the county and address the citizens at the time and place he may select. The chairman appointed on that committee, Jesse J. Yeates, Dr. R. H. Shield, W. L. Daniel, R. G. Cowper and Col. Starkey Sharp. On metion the proceedings of the meeting were ordered to be published in the Fayetteville Observer, Raleigh Confederate and all other papers in the State favourable to the re-election of Gov. Vance. GIN AND GENIUS .- One of our exchange papers says no man of common sense ever ecame a drunkard. It is the preponderance of the animal over the intellectual. Doubtless—but this is more than can be said of men of genius. Byron and Burns are not the enly cases in point. Cowley owed his exit, Pope tells us, to lying out in the fields over night. Dryden hastened his death by drinking to excess with Addison; Parnel became a sot; Churchill was " found drunk on a dunghill," and, finally, Pope himself, by whom most of these anecdotes are confirmed, is said by drinking spirits. Campbell and Coloridge it is well understood-are very likely to travel the same way. Madden intimates that Johnson owed his sobriety to his head, since he boasted of being able to guzzle three bottles of port at a sitting; Dr. Parr could endere two; some of the inferior animals, we doubt not, more than either. The hog, however, is an honorable exception. He goes the whole for every thing-but Rum! which is rather too beastly for him.

AN APPEAL TO THE PROPLE OF THE CONFEDERATE STATES. The Directors of the Young Men's Christian Association of Richmond, respectfully, but e traestly, submit to the benevolent and the patriotic throughout the Confederate States, an appeal in behalf of the Soldiers' Families in this city. Since the commencement of the war, Richmond has been a refuge for those who have been driven from their homes by our ruthless enemies. Thousands of helpless women and children, not from the devastated counties of Virginia alone, but from nearly every State of the Confederacy, have sought an asylum State of the Confederacy, have sought an asylum in our midst. Our citizens have been appealed to in numberless instances to relieve the sick and in numberless instances to relieve the sick and wounded soldiers, to furnish shoes and clothing for soldiers in the field and hospital, and to afford food and shelter for their suffering families, and nobly have they, in the great majority of instances, responded to every appeal.

The supplies of provisions in this city at this time are so reduced, and the difficulties of obtaining others by ordinary means and the difficulties.

taining others by ordinary means so numerous and great, that the funds contributed for the relief of the poor can accomplish but little in pur-chasing the necessaries of life.

In a written report from the Clothing Burcau, it appears that there are more than three thousand females in this city who are seeking employment from the Government in vain, and that those who obtain work are not fully employed. The wages received for their work will not enal-le these poor women to procure a sufficiency of the plainest food for themselves and children. Without assistance, then, from the city and country generally, many instances of actual staryation must have occurred. Our City Council has made most liberal appropriations for the purchase of supplies, both for gratuitous distribution and for sale at cost; but the agents employed for the pur-pose have not been able to procure the quantity of provisions required.

Under these circumstances, we feel that it is our duty to an and to our citizens throughout the Confed wate States, to forward, without delay, contributions of money and supplies to the army Committee of this association. Since the commencement of the war this Committee has labored zealously and faithfully for the temporal and spiritual welfare of our soldiers and their families, and the success of our glorious cause. Let those soldiers not be discouraged now, upon the eve of our severest, and, as we trust, our last and most glorious campaign, for want of the generous sympathy and support of their friends at

Shipments made to Roger Martin, Superintendent, or Wm. P. Munford, Chairman of the Army Committee, will be promptly attended to. And in accordance with a special agreement made with the Superintendent of the Southern Express Company, all express charges will be paid by them at Richmond Contributions of money should also be sent to these gentlemen. WM. WILLIS, JR., President. J. D. R. Spright, Secretary.

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY'S FIGHT.

The following accounts are from the army correspondent of the Richmond Disputch:

ABMY OF NORTHERN VA.,

May 7, 1864.

I have been in the saddle for the last twenty-four hours, and have been unremittingly active during the time end avoring to sift the true from the false. The following is the result of any inclusion and investigation.

the result of my inquiries and investigations:

As I wrote you on Thursday, the enemy began to cross the Rapidan at Ely's and German-na fords on Tuesday night. Early on Wednesday morning a force of the enemy's cavalry and artillery, having crossed at these fords, moved by the roads leading to Chancellorsville and Fredericksburg to Zoar Church, about six miles above the latter place, where they established heavy pickets. On Wednesday, the enemy having laid down pontoons across the Rapidan river, their whole force was busily engaged' all day in crossing, and about night fall had succeeded in throwing across their whole force. On Wednesday night the eremy bivouacked in and near Chancellorsville. And early on Thursday morning their column began to bear up the turnpike and plank road, i. e. the force which crossed at My's. At the same time the force which crossed at Germania moved across and over the turnpike, as if intending to join the form which was moving on those roads. In order to understand the situation, let me explain, that Orange Courhouse is on the direct line of railway from Alexandria to Richmond, distant from the former place about 78 miles, and from the latter about 87 miles. Orange Courthouse is also about six miles south of the Rapidan Railroad Bridge, and is the base of our supplies and the depot for our wounded. The battle field is about twenty-five miles beld w or east of Orange Courthouse, along the high-ways of the plank and turnpike roads ericksburg. The enemy having pushed up the plank and turnpike roads, also moved across and seized the Gatharpin and Brook roads, which run uearly parallel with the plank and turnpike roads, and to the south of these. Their object in thus acting is interpreted by some as meaning that they intended, had they not have been molested by Gen-

Lee, to have moved forward towards Milford

Depot, and thus to have turned General Lee's lank and caused him to fall back. The more o robable hypothesis is, that they seized these o ads in order to provide against a flank

THE FIGHTING THURSDAY EVENING.

noving across from Germanna ford towards the mlank road, Gen. Ewell's corps, which was moving down the turupike road, struck the head of their column as it was passing the pike. Heavy skirmishing at once ensued, and soon the enemy finding themselves much and stretching over towards the river, his right resting on the turapike road, and Rodes occupying the right with his left, journe

Johnson's right on the pike, whilst Early was held in reserve. About one, p. m., the enemy made a furious onset upon Brig. Gen. J. M.

Jones' Virginia brigade, who held the advance and the extremity of Johnson's division by Battle's brigade, and the other three brigades of Rodes' division. The fight which 'ensued was contested with great obstinacy urtil about three, p. m., when a lull ensued, our men having repulsed the enemy most handsomely.

During the attack on Battle's brigade, and just at a time it was being rapidly forced back, Gordon's brigade was ordered forward, and made one of the grandest charges of the war, forcing the enemy back at all points. Later in the evening, about 5 o'clock, they again made a desperate assault upon Johnson's lines, but which was most gallantly and handsomely repulsed, our troops remaining masters of the field, and the Yankee killed and wounded being piled up in great numbers before our breastworks. The enemy not knowing that we had any breastworks, charged us, and

In this engagement Brig. Gen. Pegram was severely wounded in the thigh. During the first of these engagements the gallant J. M. Jones, of Va., was killed under the following circumstances: His brigade it seems, except the 21st Va., under Col. Witcher, was faltering and rapidly firing, when Gen. J., in nothing daunted, rode to the front and called to his men to rally around him. At the same-moment Capt. Early, his A. A. G., and Captain Moore, his A. D. C., rode to his side, and emulating the courage of their noble leader, were making ineffectual efforts to rally their men, when they then becoming prominent marks for the enemy's sharpshooters were quickly picked off. Capt, Early fell dead, and Capt. Moore fell severely wounded. The conduct of the brigade has been and, doubtless will be much animadverted upon. In extenuation it may be mentioned that this brigada has made some splendid fights during the war, that the enemy advanced in heavy forces and very suddenly, and that this brigade afterwards reformed and fought most courageously.

Ewell's front the ene ny in heavy force advanced to attack Heth and Wilcox. A warm and desperate fight ensued, lasting from 8 o'clock until sundown. 'The result was that the enemy were held in cheek, and repulsed son, of Ewell's corps, also captured during this evening's fights, two pieces of artillery, including horses, harness and gear. We also lost about two hundred prisoners from Brig. Gen.

J. M. Jones's brigade in the first engagement in the early part of this day. Altogether, the result of the first day's engagement was a most decided success to us, especially along Ewell's lines. Indeed Ewell, who is always re is a report here to-day ! Siturday! the iron-clads from Richmond went own the James to-day, accompanied by sixty pieces of artillery, and a brigade along the river bank."

"SUNDAY, 10 p. m .- No news of special interest, from any point, up to this hour today. The telegraph wires seem to be cut or the Richmond and Danville, and the South side reads."

If the report be correct of the iron clads &c., moving lowe from Richmond to Dow ry's Bluff, wa may expect to hear of som warm work there. Gov. Vance addressed the people of Wai county on vesterday, at the Courthouse, : this city, in advocacy of his claims to re-cle tion. He had a large and attentive audience who gave unmistakable indications of their satisfaction with his effort. His speech, in sc far as it related to the state of the country and his position on national questions, was identical with those heretofore made by him at Wilkesboro' and Fayetteville.

We regret the necessity imposed on Gov. Vance of being obliged to make a politicaL speech here a this time; but the fault, we are obliged to admir, is not his. Hereafter we shall locate the responsibility properlyand we shall not fail to take due notice of the other political entertainment which was served up in this city on yesterday. For the present, we are otherwise absorbed. If God shall prosper Gens. Lee and Beau egard, and give us victory, we will then turn our attention again to the small occupations of Mr. Holden and

The Legislature.

This is the day on which the Legislature at its last session adjourned to resconvens. We saw but few of the members on the streets yesterday, and think it doubtful if a quorum be present to-day. The session will probably pressed, turned and attacked us. The Wounded Soldiers.

We are afraid the Ladies of Raleigh are not generally aware, that we have several handred wounded and sick soldiers in the Hospitals of this city. They are here, languishing in pain and suffering, deprived of those kindly attentions and sympathies from the loved ones at home, which they so much need. The absence of these can be supplied by the wives, mothers and sisters of Raleigh who can person in the stead of those absent relatives, the tender offices which fair hands in other cities and towns have performed for their husbands, sons and brothers.

We therefore say what we know from personal observation, that the sympathising offices of the Ladies of Raleigh would be most gratefully appreciated by the wounded and sick soldiers in our Hospitals. Little delicacies to suit the palates of those whose appetites must be tempted by some nice viand a cup of rich, cool milk; a bowl of refreshing soup, or reviving coffee; a word of tender kindly sympathy, a bouquet of flowers-any manifestations of regard and esteem, coming as grateful tokens of appreciation of their services and sufferings in the cause of our country, are received as refreshing showers upon the parched flowers of the desert, and as the genia' dew upon the withered rose-bud.

We know we need only call the attention of the ever generous and patriotic Ladies d this city to the matter, to ensure a genera attendance upon the noble soldiers who wounded, sick and suffering, are in their midst, Visit them every day. Carry them little delicacies; buoy up their spirits in their suffering condition; read to them; talk to them; carry them newspapers, books, &c. not forgetting the bible and the fervent praye for their recovery and spiritual welfare. The are your noble defenders. They have stood a a wall of fire between you and a cruel enemy seeking your ruin and your country's overthrow. Let your gratitude be manifested by kindly offices to them.

Our correspondent gives a good off-hand account of the meeting of "The Phraisces of the straitest sect," held at the Town Hall yesterday. Party meetings at such a time as this, are harrowing to all the better feelings of the patriotic soul; and those who have a heart to engage in them, exhibit a want anxiety for the country's safety and welfare this her darkest hour of peril and danger, the we cannot see how any true man can posses heard of their success, said "I always rely uppon the second corps for hard fighting. Give them my thanks."

"Whilst the infantry were thus engaged the cavalry were not idle. Russer with his single beigade fought Wilson's formerly Kirpstrick's cavalry division all day Thursday, and flually succeeded in forcing it to give back. His less was about two hundred as well as I can ascertain.

On Thursday night the enemy began to move slightly around to our right, and early move slightly around to our right, are early on Friday morning (yesterday) they advanced in heavy force on Ewell's front, with sin lines of battle, and fought most obstinately. Ewell's boys, and especially Eurly's, remembering the advice of the sage of Bunker's Hill, watched until they saw the whites of the enemy's eyes, and then poused into them such a volley of leaden missles as caused them to reel and stagger, and finally to give back, not, however, until the dead on Ewell's front were strewn thick around. Our advance upon and reconnoissance of Ewell's position, which was strongly fortified, scenned to satisfy them, and they made no further assault during the day. Gen. E, simply beld his ground, and so there was no further fighting on our left wing. Simultaneously with the advance upon Ewell's lines, the enemy slee made a move against our lines, the enemy also made a move against our centre, engaging Heth and Wilcox, for some time without any result, when the enemy, becoming very strong in front of these divisions, began to force them rapidly back. At this opportune moment the gallant Kershaw and his heroic braves, moved rapidly up, engaged the enemy, first checking their onset upon Heth and Wilcox, then repulsing them, and finally driving the enemy before him.

LONGSTREET'S FLANK MOVEMENT. About 11 o'clock, Lieut. General Longstreet having planned a most brilliant, flank movement, was advancing at the head of his column to the right of the plank road, in order to be certain of its successful consummation, when, by a mistake growing out of the fact that our troops mistook him and his staff for Yankees, he was fired upon. The result was that Lieut. Gen. Longstreet was wounded painfully, but not dangerously, in the left shoulder, the bail entering obliquely and passing upwards. The same fire which thus deprived the country temporarily of one of its ablest, purest and most gallant officers, robbed the country, by death, of Brig. General Jenkins, of South Carolina, who was instantly killed. Gen. Fields temporarily took Lieut. Gen. Longstreet's place, and kept up the move-ment, from which Longstreet very justly expected the happiest results. The enemy began gradually to give way, and by 4 p. m. the enemy had been pressed back some two miles-i. e., our right and centre had swung around, driving the enemy back and in towards the river, our left meantime standing fast. About 4 p. m. the heaviest fighting ceased. From then until night brisk skirm-ishing was kept up. Our loss thus far will be fully six thousand, of which a much larger per centage than usual are officers. A very large number are also but slightly wounded, and will soon be able to return to duty. The battle field is about twenty-five miles east of this place and in almost a direct line towards Fredericksburg. The country, like that around Chancellersville, and of which, indeed, it is a continuation, is a dense wilderness-as Gen Lee aptly said, a "tangled wilderness"-and as such, it is utterly unsuited for the use of artillery. . Indeed, during the entire fights there have not been over one bundred discharges of artillery.

Last night all was quiet. This morning, about 4 a. m., I left the front. Just before day there was some picket firing on Hill's front, and about sunrise heavy cannonading, was heard in the direction of Ewell's line.

The body of the Yankes General, Wadsworth, was found in front of our lines, and also the body of a General with the initials "H. H. C." supposed to be the Yankee Gencral Carr. It is also reported that the dead body of the Yankee General Hayes, who was capured last year at Chancellorsville, has been found inside of our lines.

GORDON'S PLANK MOVEMENTS. MAY 7, P. M., 1864. Yesterday evening, between sundown and dark, Brig. Gen. Gordon's Georgia brigade, of Early's division, and Brig. Gen. R. D. Johnston's N. C. brigade, of Rodes' division, executed & brilliant flank movement on our extreme left, and another on our extreme right, at a point about four miles above Germanna ford. The result may be briefly stated-in the capture of some tour hundred men and two Brigadier Generals, Seymour of Florida notoriety, and Shaler, of New York, formerly a Captain in the Seventh New York regiment. These officers were brought to the Provost Marshal General's office yesterday evening.

The Yankee losses thus far, in killed and wounded; is believed by a good judge, on ex-cellent data, not to be less than twenty thousand. Our losses will reach seven thousand. It is estimated that we have in our possession nearly two thousand of the enemy's ceptions, are reported quite slight. Gen. Clingman's Men.

The Petersburg Express of Wednesday last, has the following account of the first fight around Petersburg: About half-past 11 o'clock on Monday night; our citizens were startled by several heavy discharges of musketry in Chesterfield county, the sound proceeding from a point due north of Petersburg. Anxiety was on tip-toe to ascertain the cause, but it was not ascertained, until nearly four o'clock, just before the dawn of day. At that hour a guard came in with a Yankee who had come into our lines, and gave the particulars. On the enemy's extreme right, which had been pushed around, Monday afternuon, to Brander's Bridge, he placed a heavy picket guard, consisting of a New Hampshire regiment, amounting to 800 men, picked troops. They were somewhat isolated from the main body of the Yankee forces, a fact which our Generals were not slow to per-ceive. Two companies of the 51st N.C Regiment, Gen. Clingman's Brigade, were select- cents glass

For the Confederate. Mass-Meeting of the "Pharisces."

On yesterday at 11 o'clock, a. m, the Pharisees, (i. c., the "straitest sect,") after six furious ringings of the Town bell and a great deal of drumming, met in the City Hall, for the purpose of nominating County Caudidates. There were present some thirty or forty unadulterated "strait-laced" Phoris es, and them ass meeting was organized by calling Isaac Rowland to the Chair, who requested Colonel J. P. H. Russ, Secretary of State, to explain the object of the meeting. Colonel Russ was not present, and so business wire suspendent till he could be sent for. When he appeared, he led off in a very shrewd electioneering speech, in which he begged his friends not to sominate him for Sheriff, &c.

A committee of which Wyatt Hollomen was Chairman, was then appointed to draft resolutious. (This was a stroke of policy, as the sequel will show.) The committee refired, and "John, the rascal," was called on for a speech, who though he had said in his speech at the Court House the other night. that he did not consider this his home, and should, therefore, take no part in county electious, and when it is well known that he rode all the way to Johnsing to vote for Dr. J. T. Leach for Congress now said he would cheerfully and heartily support the nominees of this meeting. The "privilege of the writ of habeas corpus" being suspended, John took occasion to make a violent war speech. The nominations were then proposed, and after some parliamentary trickery, the fullowing persons were nominated: For the Sen-ate, Wilite D. Jones; for the Commons, Green H. Alford, Calvin J. Rogers, and the "lesser" light, alius William R. Richardson, ex clerk in the Treasury Department, late broker, miller, commissioner, Treasurer of the City, Captain in the First Regiment of Home Guards, and co-owner of the Progress.

The nominations being concluded, the committee on resolutions returned, and reported the ever-memorable Court House,-Lynn Adams-Col. Bunting resolutions. At this juncture Col. Russ, who had retired, was nominated for Sheriff, and a motion made to bring the candidates in. The lesser light came forward, took the stand, accepted the nomination and spread himself. Wyatt then took the stand, and with flashing eyes and vehement gatures, and indignation pictured on his countrance, said that the committee had been treated with disrespect, [the nominations being mide while they were out] and that therefore they were under no obligations to support the numinces. Wyatt was opposed to the lesser light, and it is rumored that the action of the meting had left a blank Page of Wyatt's books. This of course brought the lesser light to his feet, who in a spirit of great candorexpressed his willingness to "have it over agin," well-knowing that all but his par-ticular friends had left the Hall. Just here old man Kinion came to the resistance of the leser one, and said that as "he had been pro-persy souched for;" he hoped they would all switten the nomination. Wyatthen attempted a rejoin, but was soon snowed underly Caltin jr., who accepted the momination, and who was hammering away to about a dozen old me, when your correspondent left to hear Gov. lance; and arrived just in time to liter the Guernor's "wratched just in his celebrated charges of lemonade pedlar, in a circus, with his there's your nice cool lemonade—five cents glass." During Salarday nothing, occurred, sava skirmishing. Grant began leaving our front near Ferroes Store in the Wilderness on Saturday night. General Lee about the same time sent forward some traces to we ten the cases 's movements and to keep between Grant and Richmond. Our infants collided with the enemy about 10 o'clock Sunday merning, near Spottsylvania C. H., Fitz Lee's cavalry having been previously heavily appared at the same seen previously heavily engaged at the same place all the morning

A severe light resulted, in which our forces, under Gen. Kershaw, repulsed the enemy inflicting upon them a heavy loss, the enemy's killed and wounded being estimated at ten to our one. At the same time we captured some prisoners and lost some.

Later in the day, Kershaw was again engaged, and also Rodes, both of whom repulsed the enemy During Kershaw's fight on Sunday, Yankee General Robinson, commanding the 2nd division of the 5th corps, was killed.

Our loss in Sunday's fight was not over 400 killed and wounded. Buring the night of Sunday our forces were formed in line of battle around Spottsylvania Courthouse our right resting about one mile beyend the Courthouse, towards the Fredericksburg Railroad. Both sides threw up fortifications Sunday night. Yesterday and Monday there was skirmishing at intervals all day. Johnson's N. Caroline Brigade, and the Stonewall (Va.) Brigade repulsed an attack of the enemy, and about night succeeded in getting the road over which our wagon train was passing, but our trains had all gotten safely by. The enemy doubtless occupied Predericksburg as a new base on Sunday night. Yesterday they held the town and Spottsylvania Courthouse and the Telegraph road—theattersome twelve miles out. A. P. Hill is sick, and Gen. Early is commanding his corps. The enemy was continually shifting his troops from right to left yesterday, requiring similar moves

Large quantities of small arms and debrie of all sorts, were left by the enemy in the trenches on the Wilderness battle field.

Anderson's division, Sanday, captured a bat talion of cavalry with a line of sharp sho stere. It is not believed that M . hone's brigade wound ed Gen. Longstreet.

Field's line of skirmishers had been warmly engaged with the enemy, and had repulsed him three times. Fitz. Lee had also driven the enemy back some two miles on the left. The weather is exceedingly opprossize, and the roads are doep in dust. The Yankees fought with great obstinancy on Sunday, and actually bayoneted our men at their broastworks, whilst our men, their ammunition having been exhausted, had to use the butte of their muskets to repulse the enemy, A private telegram from a reliable source to a gentleman in this city, dated Spotsylvania Courthouse, Wednesday, received here at 3 30 p. m. yesterday, says :

"Enemy badly worsted at all points."

Among those wounded on our side, was Brig-Gen H. H. Walker, of Virginia, whose foot has Between ten o'clock and nightfall, the enemy made repeated quantits upon Field's Division, but were handsomely repulsed in every instance by our line of skirmishers, Fields line of battle never finding it necessary to enage them. Field's loss was very trifling.

Very near dark the enemy made a most vigorous and determined assault upon Rodes' line of battle, driging Daniel's and Doles' lines of battle from their breastworks, and capturing six pieces of our artillery.

Johnston's North Carelina, Walker's Stone wall. Va., and Gordon's Georgia Brigade, hewever, quickly came to their assistance, driving the enemy back, and re-capturing our lost gans. The enemy's loss is said to be very heavy, especially in Field's and Rodes' front. The enemy are certainly lighting with great serve

ATLANTA, May 16:

Since the repulse of the enemy at Dalton, he has been moving around our left, closely followed by Johnston, who has held him in theck in every effort against our line of communication. The nature of the country prevents the massing of large bodies of troops.

Cherokee Warriors.

The Asheville News says a body of Cheroee Indians, numbering ____, under the command of Capt. M. H. Love, arrived here & few days since, and went into camp. They are a fine looking set of men, young, robust and active. Among them is a son of the celebrated chief, Junaluskee. They have attained a high degree of perfection in drill, and go through all the evolutions with precision and accuracy. Their shrill war-whoop makes one involuntarily clap his hand on his

Speaking of these fathful allies of the South. reminds us of a little incident that very forcibly illustrates their devotion to our cause, as well as their fidelity to a friend. Some time last winter, during one of their raids into our western counties, the Yankees captured about fifteen of Col. Thomas' Indian soldiers, and carried them to Knoxville. Here they were flattered and feasted, big talks held, and magnificent promises made, if they would abandon the Confederacy and join the Lincoln government. They were propried their liberty and five thousand dollars in gold, if they would bring in the sculp ! of their Chief. Col. Wm. H. Thomas ! The Indians seemed to pause-consult-and finally agreed to the proposition. They were released, returned to their native mountains, sought the camp of their Chief, told him all, and have ever since been on the war-path-after Yankee sculps ! So much for the fidelity of the Indian, and so much for the civilized and christian manner in which a Yankee General would get rid of a foe he is too cowardly to attack himself!
